

The Elephant in the Room: “The Fall of Sex”

God designed sex to be marital, intimate, vulnerable, pleasurable, and reproductive.

When sex is not reserved for marriage, it becomes promiscuous.
(1 Thes 4:2-5, 1 Cor 6:17-18a, Ex 20:14, Heb 13:4)

When sex is not between one man and one woman, it becomes perverse.
(Rom 1:26-28, Gen 1:27-28)

When sex is not intimate, it becomes passive.
(Gen 4:1)

When sex is not vulnerable, it becomes performative.
(Gen 2:25)

When sex is not pleasurable, it becomes preoccupied.
(1 Cor 7:3-5)

When sex is not sacred, abortion becomes permissible.
(Ps 139:13-14)
