

Gospel of Luke
The Narrow Door
Luke 13:22-30

"And He was passing through from one city and village to another, teaching, and proceeding on His way to Jerusalem. 23 And someone said to Him, "Lord, are there [just] a few who are being saved?" And He said to them, 24 "Strive to enter through the narrow door; for many, I tell you, will seek to enter and will not be able. 25 "Once the head of the house gets up and shuts the door, and you begin to stand outside and knock on the door, saying, 'Lord, open up to us!' then He will answer and say to you, 'I do not know where you are from.' 26 "Then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank in Your presence, and You taught in our streets'; 27 and He will say, 'I tell you, I do not know where you are from; DEPART FROM ME, ALL YOU EVILDOERS.' 28 "In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, but yourselves being thrown out. 29 "And they will come from east and west and from north and south, and will recline [at the table] in the kingdom of God. 30 "And behold, [some] are last who will be first and [some] are first who will be last.""

Luke 13:22-30 [NASB95]

True salvation is through one narrow door

The narrow door is inclusive...and exclusive

Caution: The narrow door is closing

The narrow door separates heaven from hell

The last will be first and the first will be last
